
SATYA - TRUTHFUL IN THOUGHT, SPEECH & ACTION

Music can change the world because it can change people.

Bono

Music doesn't lie. If there is something to be changed in this world, then it can only happen through music.

Jimi Hendrix

Music is a moral law. It gives soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination, and charm and gaiety to life and to everything.

For Goodness Sake Music Festival with Pace e Bene

Pace e Bene and Campaign Nonviolence is excited to announce the online music event of the summer, For Goodness Sake: Music for the Nonviolent Future!

Music has been a powerful tool for nonviolent change in society over the years and Pace e Bene's mission has always been focused on shifting the culture to mainstream nonviolence and bringing a little more goodness into the world. With that in mind, on Saturday, August 21, 2021 we've invited musicians everywhere to contribute their amazing talents and celebrate the power of music for a culture of nonviolence.

CURRENT MUSICIANS:

Chely Wright, Gary Nicholson, Kate Taylor, Justin Michael Williams, The Hamiltones, Alexa Rose, Brother M, Eliza Gilkyson, Jimi Calhoun, Brother Timothy featuring Robert Robinson, Victoria Wolff, Shaina Jones, Ray Benson of Asleep at the Wheel, Alfredo Gomez-Beloz, Radney Foster, Erin Walter and Parker Woodland, Danny Schmidt, Carrie Elkin, David Pulkingham, David Ensign, Michael Vincent, Francisco Herrera, Guillermina Beccar Varela, Paul Crum, Lori LeChien, Mohammad Firoozi of Atash, Therapy Sisters and a very special musical guest to be announced in August!

We still have a few spots open for other artists within our Pace e Bene community to join us. If you're interested, learn more about joining us here.

During the event we will also feature short talks on the power of nonviolence including Rev. Lennox Yearwood, Jr. founder of Hip Hop Caucus talking about nonviolence and the environmental movement; Sekou Franklin, associate professor of political science at Middle Tennessee State University speaking on the intersection of music and social movements; Lori LeChien of Talk2Strangers, a Songwriter & Vocalist who will be sharing a story on the power of music to de-escalate violence. Plus Pace e Bene's Rivera Sun and Veronica Pelicaric will be sharing other topics on nonviolence as well.

This event is a benefit to not only support Pace e Bene's important work for peace and nonviolence, but it will also be supporting our over 25 co-sponsors. Each time someone affiliated with a co-sponsoring organization donates towards the For Goodness Sake festival, we give them back 25% of the proceeds to support their work locally. Yes We Can Peacebuilders is a co-sponsor and you can register and donate with the code YWCP.

CURRENT CO-SPONSORS:
